Dear Messrs. Mitchell and Harlow:

The Publications Review Board has completed its review of your manuscripts entitled "Enhanced Interrogation -- Galleys" and "Enhanced Interrogation Index." In accordance with the terms of your secrecy or non-disclosure agreement, the Board has determined that the following information in your galleys is inappropriate for disclosure in the public domain (i.e., is considered to be classified information) and must be revised or deleted prior to publication.

(b)(3) NatSecAct

Additionally, we note that there is an empty page under the heading "About the Author" on the last page. Please ensure that you forward this biographical information to the PRB for review prior to publication.

The Board is always willing to meet with you to provide clearer explanations to the objectionable text. Please contact us at [redacted] if you would like to schedule a meeting in our office.

(b)(3) CIAAct

If you add material to or change the text the Board has approved for publication, you must submit these additions or changes to us before giving them to your publisher or anyone else. In such a case, please mark or otherwise clearly indicate the new material so we can expedite our review. Additional material that must be submitted includes, but is not limited to, photographs, photograph captions, illustrations, diagrams, tables, charts, indexes, glossaries, biographies, cover images, or maps.

Once the Board reviews the final changes and a decision to approve the manuscript is made, the Board will provide it provisional approval (from a classification and appropriateness standpoint).

The Board requires that you include the following disclaimer in your book:

This does not constitute an official release of CIA information. All statements of fact, opinion, or analysis expressed are those of the author and do not reflect the official positions or views of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) or any other U.S. Government agency. Nothing in the contents should be construed as asserting or implying U.S. Government authentication of information or CIA endorsement of the author's views. This material has been reviewed solely for classification.

If you disagree with the Board's determination, you may ask the Board in writing and within 30 days of the initial determination, to reconsider. Include any and all information or explanation of the facts that you believe the Board should know. You may include citations or copies of similar references that show this information to have been previously released and already in the public domain, although a mere listing of published citations may not necessarily be sufficient to change the Board's decision. If the Board upholds its initial decision, you may then formally appeal the Board's reconsideration decision. Such appeals go to the Agency's Executive Director for a final Agency decision. If you wish to appeal, you must do so within 30 days of the Board's reconsideration decision. The appeal must be in writing and must be sent to the Board's Chairman. Appeal documentation must include the material intended for publication and any supporting material you would like the Executive Director to consider. Please note that in all cases, the decision of the ExDir/CIA is final. If an appeal is NOT brought to the attention of ExDir/CIA within applicable time limits, the original decision of the PRB will be adopted.

The Board appreciates your cooperation with prepublication review. Please do not hesitate to contact the Publications Review Board at [redacted] if you have any questions or if we can be of further assistance. (b)(3) CIAAct

Sincerely,

(b)(3) CIAAct
